Rs. 2,000 (two thousand) as security deposit in fulfilment of the terms of agreement. He must also be prepared to make good to Government all losses, in default of the terms of agreement.

(vi) The tender must contain the number of lorries that can be supplied in a batch of not less than three lorries which should be in a perfect running condition with the capacity to carry not less than four tons at a time.

(vii) The tenderer should be prepared to run the lorries on and after 1st April 1952, as per instructions of the Deputy Commissioner or Food Assistant or any other officer authorised by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf.

(viii) The tenderer should equip himself with at least two or three lorries in reserve in case of emergency.

(ix) Lorries thus hired should carry in each trip a minimum load of 60 bags of 90 seers paddy or 40 bags of 90 seers rice or other grains or 10 bales of empty gunnies (400 gunnies in each bale) or any other quantity prescribed by Government as one load.

(x) The lorries engaged should carry Government loads of foodgrains on their return journey if such loads are made available. In case of failure, the lorry hire will be deducted proportionately. If a private load were to be carried in return or forward journey the hire for such journey will not be allowed.

(xi) The rate including the loading and unloading charges per running mile should be furnished both in words and in figures in a legible manner in the tender form.

(xii) No definite monthly quantity of load can be guaranteed and the present contract will be in force for one year from 1st April 1952 to 31st March 1953 or to a later date until fresh tenders are called for.

(xiii) The lorry staff (driver, cleaner and loaders, if any) should be responsible for good behaviour towards the officers of the Food Department. The lorry owner shall be responsible for the safe and correct delivery of the contents as per invoice.

(xiv) In all matters of disputes of any kind not specially provided for in the agreement, the decision of the Deputy Commissioner will be final and legally binding on the contractor.

(xv) The contract should not be sublet to any other person.

(xvi) No claims for damage for any delay caused by the officers of the Department in the execution of the work will be entertained.

(xvii) Lorries will not be given any petrol but the hire at the sanctioned rate will be paid once a month on bills duly audited.

(xviii) If the charges of loading and unloading are not met by the owner of the lorries, the same will be paid by Government and deducted in the lorry hire amount due to the contractor.
